The Little Brown Stein

It's hard to believe that it has been 20 years since the Little Brown Stein was founded. And it's difficult to remember what the Montana-Idaho football game trophy looks like, as it has been away for so long.

It appears that the Stein was born in Montana, and raised in Idaho.

In the early fall of 1938 a State University Bearpaw, Stan Shaw, and MSU Athletic Publicist John T. Campbell suggested the idea of creating something which would be symbolic of gridiron supremacy between the Grizzlies and the Vandals.

So the Little Brown Stein was created, a 25-inch wooden ceramic whose intrinsic value was worth about the price of a grandstand ticket for today's game. Since its birth, it has been a Montana Mug several times, but more often a Vandal Vessel.

The coveted Stein was last seen at the University following the stirring 28-27 Grizzly conquest of Idaho in 1950 at Moscow. Since that time it has rested in the custody of Vandalville.

Montana's chances to wrest the fabled Little Brown Stein from its neighbors are not bright as the Vandals come here today with a strong, veteran squad, including 22 lettermen. Yet the Silvertips will strive to put a halt to the Vandalism and restore the trophy to the campus where it was founded 20 years ago.

Another chapter is added today to "Iron Men and a Wooden Stein."

—John T. Campbell

Stan ● the Ram

... All American!

This week's Spectator is dedicated to the greatest lineman ever produced at Montana State University. Stan the Ram Renning, currently winding up an illustrious three-year career with the Grizzlies, is still in the running for post-season All-America honors, and observers throughout the west agree that Renning is one of the three best guards in the country today.

This, in itself, is a truly remarkable achievement for the Great Falls ace. In three seasons of play to date, Montana has won but three of 26 games.

But Renning has been named Lineman of the Game in 13 of his past 14 games. He has garnered 78 of a possible 91 votes for the coveted honor. Last season he made the All-Skyline team with 27 of 28 possible votes, and it appears that he may become a rare unanimous All-Skyline player in '58.

Most observers tag the Ram with this quote: "It's too bad he plays for a losing team." True, this is a deterrent in Stan's bid for All-American.

But head coach Ray Jenkins disagrees. "Stan could play for any team in the country. He stands head and shoulders above every linebacker in the west as a defensive player."

At any rate, Stan's future in football is assured, in the event Renning chooses to enter professional ball. Nine pro clubs have expressed interest in Montana's great guard, and Renning has been thoroughly scouted by the play-for-pay clubs.

Montana's Own Grand Piano . . .

The MSU Music School

● Grizzly Potpourri . . . ●

By Bob Gilluly

Some 300 Missoula grade school football players are guests of the MSU Athletic Department for today's tussle.

Also on hand is Governor J. Hugo Aronson, who is scheduled for a speaking engagement at the Montana Motor Transport Assn. banquet this evening.

Today's issue of the Spectator is dedicated to Stan Renning, Montana's great guard who is pushing for All-American honors in his senior season. Renning played what many observers feel was his greatest game in the Idaho contest last fall at Moscow. No vote was taken for Outstanding Lineman, but press and radio officials agreed that Renning and All-Pacific Coast guard Jerry Kramer, now a professional star, waged the toughest duel in the long history of the football series between Idaho and Montana.

Renning came up with his first intercepted pass of the season last Saturday against Colorado State. During his career Stan the Ram has intercepted six passes and ran one back for a touchdown in his sophomore year. These statistics are more significant when one considers that Renning is a linebacker, and must be doubly alert to steal short hook passes and quick shots over the center of the line.

Idaho Injury Report: Fullback Ken Hall, a sparkplug all season for the Vandals, will not play. Also on the doubtful list is starting guard Dole Hill, although he is suited up. Several other Vandals are hurting with minor bruises.

Montana Injury Report: Tailback Bob Everson, the leading ground gainer for Montana, is still sidelined with a breastbone injury, and probably will not see action until next week's clash with the Montana State College Bobcats.

The Little Brown Stein hasn't been seen on the Montana campus since 1950, when the Grizzlies won a 28-27 thriller from Idaho. End Don Gerlinger kicked four vital extra points in that contest.

Idaho has won 29 of the 41 encounters between these two schools. Montana has won 11 and there has been one tie. Idaho's biggest victory was a 46-0 triumph in 1945, while Montana's best win was 21-0 in 1947. Idaho won last year at Moscow, 31-13.

Montana hasn't lost eight games in a row during a season since 1942, when Coach Clyde Carpenter's Grizzlies had a 0-8 mark for the year.

Twelve Grizzly seniors will play their final home contest next Saturday against the MSC Bobcats. They are guard Montana Bockman, halfback Jerry Connors, halfback Bob Everson, guard Don Fell, halfback Matt Gorsich, halfback Howard Johnson, tackle Dick Leenhouts, tackle Charley Moore, halfback Larry Myers, guard Stan Renning, end Tom Sorenson, and guard Dale Sparber.

Grizzlies in Action!

Steady Pete Muri hauls in a pass from Phil Griffin in the Montana-BYU tussle two weeks ago. This snag set up Montana's first touchdown, and Muri also contributed another catch to spark a drive toward the Grizzlies' final TD in the tussle with the Brigs. Coming up to make the tackle is BYU's Dick Magoffin (50). Head Linesman Bob Murray watches.

The New Coach . . .

The 23rd mentor to guide Grizzly football destinies in 58 years of competition is RAY JENKINS, hard-working and personable gentlemen who took over the coaching reins this spring. A former Colorado University assistant, Jenkins leans heavily toward a multiple-type offense, with emphasis on the single wing. Silvertip fans can be assured, however, that Montana will "mix 'em up" in types of plays. Quarterbacks will pass off the T formation, half-backs will carry the ball from a split T, and ends will catch passes from a spread formation.

Jenkins, 37, was a star fullback at Colorado just before World War II. He served in the Navy during the second conflict, then started his coaching career at Colorado School of Mines. He moved back to Colorado in 1951, guiding the freshman team first and then was moved to end coach three years ago.

... Assistant Coaches ...

HUGH DAVIDSON, former Colorado freshman coach, was the first assistant named by Jenkins. Colorado fans will remember the backfield assistant as a scrappy little fullback in the 1949-51 seasons for the Buffalos.

Following graduation Davidson coached two years at Osborn, Kansas, then returned to the CU campus as freshman coach in 1954. He is a Navy veteran with two years service in the Seabees.

DON BRANBY, 30, will handle Grizzly ends. Another former Colorado star, Branby was an All-American defensive end in 1951 for the Buffalos. He holds the distinction of being one of three Colorado athletes who earned nine varsity letters during his career. He played a year of pro ball with the New York Giants, but an injury cut his career short. He entered the Air Force in 1954 and played and coached teams in Germany. He was player-coach of the Hamilton AFB, Calif., football team in 1957.

Assistant TOM PARRY will guide Silvertip linemen, a job well-suited to his capabilities and experience. Parry was a guard at Washington State College in 1941-42 and 1946-47. He played in the 1948 East-West Shrine game.

Following graduation he coached a year at Langley, Wash., five years at Clarkston, Wash., then took over head coaching duties at Wenatchee Junior College, promptly guiding the Black Knights to a 1956 league championship. He spent three years in the Navy during World War II.

Freshman coach HAL SHERBECK is a 1952 graduate of Montana State University, where he starred for Grizzly football, basketball and baseball squads for two years.

He is a member of the Grizzly Basketball Hall of Fame. Following graduation he coached the Missoula County high school Spartans, winning class AA championships in 1952, 53, and 54. He was named Montana Coach of the Year in 1952, and his four-year record with the Spartans was 28 wins, five losses and six ties. He joined the Montana staff in 1956 and last season molded a fine Cub squad.

The Spectator Advertisers . . .

Participating in this, the ONLY MAGAZINE-TYPE ATHLETIC PROGRAM in the nation . . . are a number of Missoula firms, all of whom have supported the MSU athletic program for a number of years. The Spectator staff is proud to have these firms included in our radical new program, and the discerning Spectator reader can be assured that the goods and services offered in this program are of the finest quality.

A Spectator BONUS!

Equally at ease in a swim suit, riding habit or ballet costume is talented Kay Jonas, 18-year-old MSU freshman who lives in Corbin Hall. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Jonas, Thompson Falls, and plans to specialize in applied voice in her Music School major.

Already active in University life, Kay is a member of the Air Force ROTC Angel Flight, participates in Choral Union, and plans to engage in ballet activities. Her measurements are a healthy 36-23-36, and winsome Kay thinks it's a "real honor" to be picked as a Spectator Girl. A note of caution to University men, however: she has a steady boy friend. "But not here," Kay adds.

• • • • • Two Pages of MSU Lovelies!

It's only natural that Spectator Lovely Julee Briscoe should pose in a leotard, since the lithe Missoula girl lists ballet as her favorite hobby. Julee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Briscoe, 132 University Avenue, is a freshman majoring in Liberal Arts. Her mother, by the way, is an assistant professor in the Home Economics department.

Julee is another Spectator Girl who comes out emphatically in favor of our feature idea. "I think the Spectator Girl helps sell the programs, and that means more money for the athletic program." We agree.

Another sad note: Julee also has a steady. She's also a member of the Angel Flight, and Kappa Kappa Gamma claims her as an outstanding pledge.

Her measurements:
34-22-34.

The CENTURY CLUB is:

... composed of some 300 men throughout the state who donate $100 yearly to the MSU athletic program. Through their efforts the University athletic program is assured of a sound financial footing. And, because of them, Montana will continue to produce athletic teams of which the people of the state can be proud.

The Spectator Salutes! . . .

That old bugaboo—injuries—has taken two more plucky Grizzlies from the Silvertip fold, and the loss of fullback Jerry Young and center Mick O'Brien is another prime factor in the weak showing of the Grizzlies this season.

O'Brien, who will earn his third football letter for Montana this season, has been a standout pivot man for the Grizzlies ever since the Spokane boy reported to the Montana camp. His forte is defense, and observers throughout the Skyline agree that the tough Irishman is one of the better corner linebackers in the league. Young, who transferred to Montana last season from Yakima Junior College, has been a semi-regular for two seasons. Not big as fullbacks go—5:10 and 180 pounds—he averaged 3.3 yards per carry in 1957 and had a 3.1 average this season until injuries in the New Mexico contest. Both men have underwent knee operations in the past month, and it is appropriate that the Spectator salute these two Grizzlies who have reluctantly packed away their football gear for the season.

A Spectator Preview . . .

Montana vs. Montana State College, Nov. 15

One of the oldest sports rivalries in the west will flare anew on Dornblaser Field next Saturday when Montana State's unbeaten Bobcats meet the winless Grizzlies. On paper the 'Cats must be considered topheavy favorites.

But this is the traditional contest where the book is thrown out the window. Comparative records mean nothing when the Grizzlies and Bobcats clash.

Up for contention is the Copper Cup, the Butte Chamber of Commerce trophy which is emblematic of the state football championship.

Fifty-seven games have been played between the cross-state rivals. The Grizzlies have won 40, the 'Cats 12, and there have been five ties
